Your place and importance at Word Of Life

DECLARATION

I commit myself to Leadership.

I am a leader at home, at my job, and in the house God.

I am important and take pride in the investment and spirit of excellence I make in the kingdom of God.

I will be apart of the kingdom solution that will produce fruit in my account.

The seeds that I sow in words and deeds will manifest in my life.

I am a minister of God Word and God has give me the power and the anointing to effect changes in whomever i reach.

My life is an example for those are looking for a balanced and holy Christ life christian.

I have the spirit of Palms 27:4

One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

I decree it is so in Jesus Name Amen!

Overcoming Challenges

Overcoming Challenges

- ▶ Define the challenge—Step back and define what is reality. Challenges often like to make themselves look bigger than they are. Get perspective and define what is really going on!
- ▶ Calendar the challenge—Don't allow any challenge to distract you from what matters most in your ministry. Calendar your approach to the

Overcoming Challenges

- ▶ Connect with people involved with the challenge—Don't try to overcome a challenge in isolation. Gather the people involved with it and give them a voice, even if they don't have a vote with the final solution.
- ▶ Lead toward a solution—Overcoming that challenge will demand you step forward and lead through toward a solution. It may be hard work, but it's worth it. Push through the pain and overcome that challenge.

Overcoming Challenges

- ▶ Evaluate and make improvements—As you overcome the challenge, make sure and evaluate the process and have the courage to improve things that did not turn out so well.
- ▶ Tackle the next challenge—Just around the corner is your next challenge. Celebrate the victory and then prepare for your next adventure.

Building Relationships

The Glue that holds any church together!

The Bible frames relationships among believers as a proactive investment in other Christians,”

“In fact, Hebrews 10:24 refers to the need to exhibit concern for other Christians in ways that encourage love and good works.

Interview Pastor Karl Vaters

6 Ways to Build Relationships with church leaders.

1. Remember we are all Human
2. Take an interest in their lives outside of church
3. Meet People where they are
